REMARKS

The attached substitute specification pages were filed by Express Mail on 2 October 2003, along with other submissions.

The amendment herein, merely corrects the page number at the bottom of the markup and clean copies of the pages. Therefore, the page numbers should be 11-13 rather than 13-15.

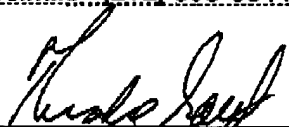

Note, that the amendment filed herewith directing entry of the attached substitution pages to the specification, and should be unambiguously understood to supersede and negate the corresponding substitute pages filed by Express Mail with the amendment of 2 October 2003.

It is also noted that the additional submissions of 2 October 2003 that amend the sequence listing and the claims, are to be considered according to usual practice.

The undersigned regrets the error and respectfully requests entry of the attached substitute specification pages.

Respectfully Submitted,
